Schedule Will Be Adopted at | Capitol Heights, 6; Southeast, 5. Meeting This Evening at St. Aloysius Parish Hall.

By NAT T. WORLEY.

OTHER AMATEUR GOSSIP

Another amateur organization, com osed of clubs from the various Holy ame societies of Washington, will enter the field in a few days.

The project has been under considera-tion for several weeks, and at a meet-ing this evening at St. Aloysius Hall, in street, a schedule will be drafted and decision reached as to the name of the new circuit.
